

CONSTITUTION OF THE BRYAN AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

Preamble:

We, the undersigned, wishing to secure for ourselves the pleasures and benefits of an association of persons commonly interested in Amateur Radio, constitute ourselves the BRYAN AMATEUR RADIO CLUB of Bryan/College Station, Texas and enact this Constitution as our governing law. It shall be our purpose to further the exchange of information and cooperation between members, to promote radio knowledge, fraternalism and individual operating efficiency, and to so conduct club programs and activities as to advance the general interest and welfare of Amateur Radio in the community.

Article I

Membership

All persons interested in Amateur Radio communications shall be eligible for membership. Membership shall be by application and election upon such terms as the club shall provide in its By-Laws.

Membership may not be denied because of race, creed, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, political affiliation, marital status or any other reason that would be biased or prejudicial.

Article II

Officers

Section 1: Officers

The officers of this club shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. An individual may not hold more than one office during the same term.

Section 2: Election

The officers of this club shall be elected for a term of one year by ballot of the members present, provided there be a quorum, at the annual meeting.

Section 3: Vacancies

Vacancies occurring between elections must be filled by special elections at the first regular meeting following the withdrawal or resignation of an officer.

Section 4: Eligibility

In order to hold an office an individual must be a member in good standing and hold a valid Amateur Radio license.

Section 5: Resignation

Any officer may resign his/her position in writing at which time all records and assets of the club will be turned over to the President or Vice President.

Section 6: Removal of Officers

Officers may be removed from office for cause, upon written petition of 10 percent or more of the current membership, presented to a duly elected officer of the club.

All uninvolved Officers will investigate the petition at which point the full membership of the club will be notified by correspondents of the investigation and pending presentation of the finding from the highest ranking uninvolved officer, at the next regular meeting.

Removal of an officer requires a two-third vote of the present membership within 14 calendar days of the presentation of the investigation to the membership.

Article III

Duties of Officers

Section 1: President

The President shall preside at all meetings, and conduct them according to the rules adopted. He/she shall enforce due observance of this Constitution and By-Laws; decide all questions of order; sign all official documents adopted by the club, and perform all other duties pertaining to the office of President.

Section 2: Vice President

The Vice-President shall assume all the duties of the President in his/her absence. The Vice President shall also perform the function of Program Chairman for the club, and shall arrange for programs at appropriate meetings.

Section 3: Secretary

The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of all meetings, keep a roll of members, submit membership applications, carry on all correspondence, read communications at each meeting, and send written meeting notices to each member. At the expiration of his/her term he/she shall turn over all items belonging to the club to his/her successor.

Section 4: Treasurer

The Treasurer shall receive and receipt for all monies paid to the club; keep an accurate account of all monies received and expended; pay no bills without proper authorization (by the club or its officers constituting a business committee). At the monthly club meeting a statement of disbursements and receipts shall be made available. At the end of his/her term he/she shall turn over everything in his/her possession belonging to the club to his/her successor.

Article IV

Meetings

The By-Laws shall provide for regular meetings. At meetings, a minimum of one-fourth of the membership shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Robert's Rules of Order shall govern proceedings.

Article V

Dues

The club, by majority vote of those present at any regular meeting, provided those present constitute a quorum, may levy upon the general membership such annually dues as shall be deemed necessary for the business of the organization within its objectives as set forth in the preamble to this Constitution. Non-payment of such annually dues shall be cause for expulsion from the club within the discretion of the membership.

Article VI

Club Call Sign and Trustees

The official BARC club call sign will be: W5BCS.

The President shall assign trusteeship of the club call sign and repeater to one or two persons.

The trustee/s shall:

- Be responsible for responding to official and other inquiries concerning the license or repeater coordination.
- Be a member of the club in good standing.
- Meet FCC requirements.
- Not had his/her Radio Amateur licensed revoked or sanctioned at any time.

Article VII
